Kettler Kapers

By LEONA and AL WIMMEL

HI NEIGHBORS! Kettler Knolls is growing fast. Already about half of the homes in Tract Six, just south of Tract Three, have been occupied. In another two weeks the balance of the 48-home tract will be completed. In the absence of a welcoming committee, we wish to spread out the welcome mat for the 21 families who have moved in. They are the Messrs and Mmes Edward G. Kotzko, Jr., Joseph Belanger, Louis Gonzales, Jack Bays, Rudy Terah, Thomas Nichols, Jimmy Griffin, Robert Clerisse, James Reid, Clarence L. Jones, William Seiber, Anthony Kallin, Andres Alarcon, Joseph Huggins, Daryl Velice, Raymond Radtke, Jack Mims, Hugo Caputo, Leo Stark, William Campbell, and Glenn Musso.

A STORK SHOWER HONORING Mrs. June Grubbs was given at the home of Mrs. Leona Wimmell, 23204 Falena avenue, Friday evening, by the Tract Three Canasta Club. Other hostesses were Mmes. Vivian Wise, Georgia Stroub, Josie Jarvis, Helen Bell, Bernice Howland, and Ruth Buehler.

The house was appropriately decorated for the surprise occasion, and a beautiful pink and blue bannet was filled with many lovely gifts for the baby-to-be. Several novelty games were played with Mesdames Jerry Withycombe, Bernice Howland, Viola Rogers, and Jewel Holmes carrying away the prizes. Refreshments of salad, rolls and cookies were served.

Guests of the club were the Mesdames Calvin Blakley, Thomas Rogers, Ted Eyrich, Joe Morgan, Elwyn Kelly, Joe Helphand, James Withycombe, Harold Holmes, Henry Setzer, Clifford Greybech, Earl Chandler, Clyde Ostler, Ray Lockett, Herman Edgren, Robert Moore, Howard Stittworth, William Hartley, Howard Black, Robert Juvet, Ed Cooper, and Edith Ratcliffe, mother of the honoree.

Next morning little Mark Grubbs glowed with pride for his mother when he awoke to discover all the wonderful gifts. "Oh look!", he shouted, "Mama won all the prizes!"

Senior Club Advisors

Among the enjoyable affairs arranged for members of Torrance Junior Woman's Club was their Advisors' annual party given recently in the clubhouse as a backwards party.

Senior advisors, wearing housecoats for the evening party, greeted their guests at their entrance, and presented each with a glass of fruit juice.

Entertainment featured a magazine scavenger hunt with winners modeling old clothing and hats. Refreshments were corned beef hash, eggs, and coffee.

Presentation of a beautiful silver creamer and sugar bowl by the senior advisors was graciously acknowledged by Mrs. H. P. Jensen, president of the Junior club.

Representing the Juniors at the district convention April 14-15 in Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel were:

Mrs. E. E. Clayton, District Home chairman and serving on the district election board; Mrs. Regis C. Jones, District Press chairman, who will present awards for the best press book of the year; Mrs. W. C. Boswell, Jr., elected 3rd vice-president of Torrance Juniors; Mrs. R. C. Morton, Torrance president-elect; and Mrs. H. P. Jensen, president, who will give a report on activities of Torrance

HELP! BANDITS!

These outlaws attack without warning, insidiously, and kill mercilessly. They are no respectors of sex, age, or color. An army of Scientists are on their trail; how soon these killers will be exterminated depends upon all of us. These vicious killers are known as Cancer.

The greatest men in the field of science are delving into the unknown, following every clue, experimenting and while their findings are many, yet Cancer goes creeping, striking, killing, with lawless abandon. Your money given to the Cancer Crusade will ultimately bring these terrible fiends to bay. They exterminated Yellow Fever, Typhoid, Typhus, Smallpox and a thousand other killers and they will exterminate Cancer — with our assistance. In the meantime, our life is threatened; GIVE GENEROUSLY TO OUR CANCER CRUSADE. You may save your life or one that is near and dear to you.
